Washington State granted women the right to vote in November 1910, the fifth state in the union to do so. The 19th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which granted all women the right to vote, was passed in 1919. The League of Women Voters of the U.S. was founded that same year.

Information verified as of January 2017, although there may be resignations and appointments during the year. Special thanks to the Mason County Auditor's Office for their help in preparing this brochure.
